

CONFIDENTIALComparison of Confidential Statements Made
By D. and T. *Her*and

Both agree that Mrs. Gibson said she followed the wagon on the mule to Easton Avenue, where it turned to the right.

On the night of the trial trip T. says the mule was a fast walker and took 41 minutes from Gibson barn to Easton Avenue.

F.D.

F. D. says nothing about a car running in and backing out of De Russey Lane and Mrs. G. seeing the people by its lights but does say Mrs. G., when she reached Easton Avenue saw a car on the River side towards Bound Brook from De Russey Lane facing Bound Brook.

F.D. says Mrs. G. while at Easton Avenue and De Russey Lane saw three figures crossing the fields in the general direction of the Farm House and Crab Apple Tree. That she went back through the Lane and when she had gone to a point in De Russey Lane beyond Phillips Lane (the one by the crab apple) she saw a flash light in the vicinity of the tree and heard shots. She was then four or five hundred feet from the tree and in De Russey Lane. She proceeded home along the Lane and discovered the moccasin loss at the bend in De Russey Lane. ~~D. says nothing of "Oh, Henry".~~

D. and T. agree that when Mrs. G. saw the flash and heard the shots she was in De Russey Lane, near the intersection of Phillips Lane, and that she

G.T.

G. T. says about 75 feet from Easton Avenue Mrs. G. stopped because an automobile turned in, backed out and went towards New Brunswick. By its lights Mrs. G. saw a woman and a man who looked like a negro at side of road. Mrs. G. went on to Easton Avenue turned into Easton Avenue for 15 or 20 feet, saw nothing, stopped a minute or two to deliberate and decided to go home and turned back into De Russey Lane.

G. T. says nothing about Mrs. G. seeing a car on Easton Avenue.

G. T. says that when Mrs. G. reached a point on De Russey Lane just short of Phillips Lane, she saw a flash, heard shots, and some one say "Oh, Henry". The shots were fired near a tall cedar, later cut down, which gave her the location. Mrs. Gibson without getting off her mule proceeded home and while still on the mule near home found she had lost her moccasin.
